

School of Natural Resources
University of Missouri

SCHOLARSHIPS & AWARDS

University of Missouri

School of Natural Resources
Office of Academic Programs
University of Missouri
124 ABNR
Columbia, MO 65211
(573) 882-7045

SCHOLARSHIPS & AWARDS

The School of Natural Resources has many scholarships and awards available for full-time incoming and continuing students. Scholarships awarded through SNR may be combined with other College or University awards.

Scholarships are awarded to qualified students who have filed an application. Please visit <https://financialaid.missouri.edu/> to identify deadlines and to file an application.

School of Natural Resources

Jerry J. Presley Scholarship. Criteria: Freshmen who have participated in the Conservation Honors Program. *

G. Andy Runge Scholarship. Criteria: Missouri high school graduate; recipients encouraged to attend Conservation Federation of Missouri (CFM) programs. *

Orval G. and H. Ruth Caldwell Scholarship. Criteria: full-time undergraduate; interest in environmental studies and work; financial need.

G.M. and E.M. Gwinner Scholarship. Criteria: Upperclassmen with GPA > 2.0.

Ann Weber Hoyt and Earl H. Hoyt Scholarship. Criteria: Resident and high school graduate of Missouri; recipient must participate in CFM meetings.

Charles W. and Elizabeth R. Schwartz Scholarship in Wildlife Art. Criteria: Preference given to students studying wildlife art; a portfolio must be submitted.

Ed and Vera Woods Memorial Scholarship. Criteria: Undergraduates with respectable academic record; financial need.

Natural Resource Science & Management (B.S. NRSM)

Donald P. Duncan Scholarship. Criteria: Sophomores exhibiting scholastic achievement (GPA \geq 3.0) and participation in extra-curricular activities during freshman year; potential for success; financial need.

Gwinner Scholarship. Criteria: Awarded to deserving students.

L. Morgan and Wanda R. Schwind Memorial Scholarship. Criteria: Undergraduate; financial need.

NRSM Emphases in Forestry or Terrestrial Ecosystems

Osai and Juanita Capps Scholarship. Criteria: Respectable academic standing; good character; potential for success; participation in professional organizations; financial need may be considered.

UMC Forestry Club Scholarship. Criteria: Active forestry club member; activities; good moral character and academic standing are considered.

Charles R. Fritschle Scholarship. Criteria: Undergraduate, financial need.

 High school students eligible to apply.
Preference given to incoming freshmen*

SCHOLARSHIPS & AWARDS

NRSM Emphases in Forestry or Terrestrial Ecosystems (cont.)

Kirk Scholarship. Criteria: Undergraduate in forest resource management curriculum; good academic standing; potential for success; good character; financial need.

William G Kohner Scholarship. Criteria: Juniors, seniors, or graduate students

McCormick Memorial. Criteria: Undergraduate or graduate students.

Lee K. and Lois Paulsell Scholarship. Criteria: respectable academic standing; good character; potential for success; significant participation in professionally oriented activities and organizations; financial need.

School of Forestry Class of 1964 Scholarship. Criteria: Respectable academic standing; potential for success; good character; financial need.

Roger Dustin Shaw Memorial Scholarship. Criteria: Undergraduate or graduate students of good academic standing from one of the following counties in Missouri: Oregon, Howell, Shannon or Ripley; financial need may be considered.

R.H. Westveld Scholarship. Criteria: Good character; potential for successful career in forestry, priority given to students from traditionally underrepresented groups.

NRSM Emphases in Fisheries & Wildlife or Terrestrial Ecosystems

H. Wilbur Allen Memorial Scholarship. Criteria: entering freshmen (GPA > B) or full-time undergraduate (GPA ≥ 3.0); potential for success; professional and extracurricular activities. *

Richard M. Graham Memorial Scholarship. Criteria: Sophomores with GPA ≥ 2.5 at the end of freshman year; potential for success; financial need.

Elizabeth R. and Charles W. Scholarship in Wildlife. Criteria: Undergraduate who shows potential for success in the field of wildlife; academic achievement.

Thomas Baskett Scholarship. Criteria: undergraduate who shows academic achievement; GPA ≥ 3.0.

Trisha Westhoff Yauk Scholarship. Criteria: Undergraduate with interest in environmental science education.

Bill T. Crawford Scholarship. Criteria: Junior or senior studying conservation biology; participation in wildlife clubs; academic achievement; financial need.

Kahrs-Miller Scholarship. Criteria: Demonstrated leadership and academic achievement; dedicated to progress of aquaculture industry or fisheries management in Missouri.

Environmental Science (B.S. Env Sc)

John D. Drew Hydrology Award. Criteria: Desired career as a hydrologist in public service; good academic standing; completion of ≥ 75 credits hours and ≥ 15 credits related to hydrology; aptitude for hydrologic processes; preference for students with financial need.

C. E. Marshall Scholarship. Criteria: Outstanding undergraduate or graduate student whose community, research and teaching activities contribute to the preservation of air, soil and water resources. One award may be given to a student from a foreign country.

Parks, Recreation & Sport (B.S. PRS)

Keith B. Roys Sr. Scholarship. Criteria: Junior or senior; GPA ≥ 3.0; involvement in extracurricular activities; financial need.

Dr. C. Randy Vessell Scholarship. Criteria: Junior, senior or graduate student; recipient must exhibit ambition and passion for parks and recreation; financial need.

PRS Alumni Award. Criteria: Undergraduate student pursuing a degree in Parks, Recreation and Sport.